Hi Deidra,

Looking at our emails from October I believe the only language we were wanting added was the force majeure language that I sent over which would cover the increased costs due to situations out of our control (pandemics). I've included it below again if it's possible to incorporate within or replace the existing force majeure language in the agreement.

> Force Majeure: Neither party shall be liable in damages or have the right to terminate this agreement for any delay or default in performing hereunder if such delay or default is caused by conditions beyond its control or are inadvisable, commercially impracticable, or illegal including by not limited to acts of God, government restrictions (including the denial or cancellation of any necessary license or certification), wars, insurrections, acts of terrorism, threats of terrorism, civil disorder, labor strikes or disruptions, epidemics, pandemics and/or any other cause that is beyond the reasonable control of the party whose performance is affected (including mechanical, electronic, or communications failure). Contractor reserves the right to refuse to move any Prisoner for any reason. Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to obligate Contractor to accept any move of behalf of the Department under this agreement.
