How to Read This Schedule

Not every trolley stop is listed on the schedule. The stops listed across the top are called time points, which are used to keep the trolley on schedule.

Locate your starting point on the map. Find the nearest trolley stop (indicated by a dot), as well as the nearest time point after your stop (indicated by a letter in a circle). On the schedule, look in the column below that time point to find the time closest to when you want to get on the trolley. Make sure you look at the schedule that corresponds to the direction you are going. Estimate the time it will take the trolley to get from your starting point to that time point, and be at your stop at least five minutes prior to that time. Read the schedule from left to right to find the time the trolley will arrive at other time points.
