Program Strategy: Focusing on felony re-entry

Program Summary:

The Jacksonville Re-Entry Center (JREC) is the required first stop for all ex-offenders returning to Duval County after incarceration, to ensure proper and lawful re-entry into the community. The expansion of this program will help to ensure that ex-offenders make successful transitions back into the community and do not return to a life of crime.

JREC ACTIVITIES:

JREC staff received notice from the Lake County Re-entry committee that as a result of last month's staff presentation they received funding to hire a part time re-entry coordinator. Following the Interfaith Breakfast, staff presented on a re-entry panel. A student intern from UNF is working with JREC staff to assist in analyzing and improving the data analysis and reporting process. JREC and JSO staff attended the American Jail Association conference in Grand Rapids, Michigan and had an opportunity to learn more about the opportunities and challenges involved with implementing evidence based assessments and cognitive behavioral programming within a jail facility.

Overall Program Status: JREC is in the process of filling four vacated staff positions, two re-entry specialist, 1 CSA 111 and the BYRNE Grant funded employment specialist. All individuals that resigned their positions found better paying jobs. Staff considers this to be an ongoing problem as the economy improves. All JREC positions require individuals with extensive experience to work well with the JREC population; this very experience is better rewarded monetarily by most other community partners.

Program Successes:

1. M. Warren: Since his release he enrolled and attended the Duval County High School Completion Program and obtained his GED. He is scheduled to graduate with his High School Diploma in a week.
2. J. Johnson: Enrolled in the North-South Human Services after care substance abuse program, was provided services through Vision is Priceless, and successfully developed and independent contract mobile detail business servicing via contracts with dealerships and downtown business offices.
3. C. Simmons-Cooper is a 28 year old male, released from Columbia Correctional Institution after having served a 2 year sentence for sexual battery/custodial. Mr. Simmons-Cooper aggressively looked for employment and was successful in finding a job at Longhorn Restaurant. He has quickly been promoted from a host to a server which will enable him to earn tips, in addition to his minimum pay.
Mr. Simmons-Cooper was diligent and finally successful in convincing Judge Soud to modify his probation, extending his curfew allowing him to work as many hours as necessary to satisfy his work schedule at Longhorn. Mr. Simmons – Cooper has a positive attitude and continues to progress at his weekly support group.

Program Information

Scope of Services Include:

Portal of Entry: The Jacksonville Sheriff’s Office, Department of Corrections will, in conjunction with participating agencies operate a “Portal of Entry” (one stop shop) whereby ex-offenders returning from local, state or federal incarceration can be provided assistance for successful reentry into our community. The Jacksonville Re-Entry Center serves as one arm of this reentry portal. The “one stop shop” will provide the following deliverables:

- Increase public safety by reducing recidivism
- Provide on-site felony registration
- Assign terms of and conditions of program participation that complement any state sanctioned probation or parole requirements
- Facilitate former offender’s sustained engagement in treatment, mental health and supportive health services
- Identify stable housing through JREC staff networking with several agencies and community providers that provide housing to ex-offenders such as, boarding houses, income based apartments and when needed financial assistance to secure such
- Continue to address the obstacles that make it difficult for ex-offenders to obtain and retain employment at a living-wage level
- Provide opportunities for inmates exiting prison or jail to obtain appropriate forms of identification;

Case Management -Reentry Transition Plans: In coordination with State of Florida, Department of Corrections facilities, the JREC Resource Specialists will develop a reentry plan for those meeting the criteria which states clients are defined as offenders who were residing in Jacksonville, sentenced in Jacksonville and are returning to Jacksonville upon release from incarceration.

Facilitate Transportation: The JREC provides a limited number of bus tickets for ex-offenders who are seeking employment.

Parole/Probation Coordination: Probation officers and resource specialists will work hand-in-hand to provide intensive, individualized assistance needed by many of the ex-offenders.
