| Successes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Members of Keystone Club and Creative Arts programs came together and made get well cards for children at Wolfson Children's Hospital. • Members are continuing to work on their academics. They continue to work on FCAT Explorer and Compass Odyssey to prepare for the FCAT exam and participate in grade recovery. • Members of Image Makers learned about promoting and advertising products through print media. They took photographs and made promotional posters to persuade others to buy the products advertised. • On January 17th our young ladies attended the GIRLS ROCK Literacy Symposium. The focus of this event was on literacy with an initiative to incorporate science, technology, engineering, the arts, and mathematics related fields. Superintendent Dr. Vitti was the guest speaker. The members enjoyed attending the Symposium and felt empowered to follow their dreams. | | | | |
