Successes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Members of Keystone Club learned about ethics and integrity. They discussed why it is important to have these characteristics, and what can happen if they do not possess them.. Members held a Be Thankful Celebration. This celebration was a night of family games including a Thanksgiving trivia challenge, and of course tasty food that was donated by both staff and families. Each member noted what they were thankful for, on the Thankful Tree. Members of Creative Arts discussed ways to show your personality in your art. They also discussed what makes individuals unique. They then went on to create their own designer tote bag that expresses their unique personality. Members of Healthy Habits learned about metabolism and how activity helps this chemical reaction in your body.
Challenges: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sustaining a reduction to the budget, once the program was underway.
